This Year We Welcome Mother Jean DeVaty

Mother Jean DeVaty grew up the fourth of five daughters and a fourth generation Pittsburgher. Sundays found the family of seven squeezing into their station wagon and traveling into Pittsburgh to attend First Presbyterian Church. Mtr. Jean's faith deepened through her education at Wheaton College in Wheaton, Illinois and Trinity School for Ministry in Ambridge, Pennsylvania. From youth ministry to parish administration, from pastoral care to children's ministry, from healing prayer to camp ministry she learned to reflect on life as a means to help her grow closer to the Lord and to become the person He created her to be. Currently Rector of St. James' Episcopal Church in Lake George, NY, she invites others to join her on this journey: to grow deeper in knowledge and love of the Lord and become the people of God.
